1. The Office of the Chief Medical Examiner ("OCME"), in the exercise of its statutory authority under the Establishment of the Chief Medical Examiner Act of 2000, effective October 19, 2000 (D.C. b. Where, prior to death, a person whose remains otherwise would be subject to this order expresses a religious or other objection to the performance of an autopsy, or where, prior to or after death of the said person, such an objection is expressed by the said person's next of kin or authorized legal representative; provided, that the OCME shall proceed to conduct an autopsy, notwithstanding the wishes to the contrary voiced by the person or his or her representative, where the Chief Medical Examiner determines, in writing, that there is a compelling medical reason to perform an autopsy in order to determine or rule out questionable circumstances concerning the cause of death of the decedent and that no less invasive procedure is available to ascertain the cause or causes of death to a reasonable degree of medical certainty.

4. The OCME shall promptly forward the reports of autopsies conducted in accordance with this Order to the D.C. Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities Fatality Review Committee established by Mayor's Order 2005-143, effective September 30, 2005, or any successor entity.

Mayor's Order 2006-125
October 3, 2006

SUBJECT: Establishment of Alternative Curfew Hours for Individuals Below the Age of 17 Under the Enhanced Crime Prevention and Abatement Emergency Amendment Act of 2006.

ORIGINATING AGENCY: Office of the Mayor

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the District of Columbia by section 422(11) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, as amended, Pub. L. No. 93-198, 87 Stat. 790, D.C. Official Code § 1-204.22(11) (2001), and by section 3a (a) of the Juvenile Curfew Act of 1995 (Juvenile Curfew Act), D. C. Law 11-48, as added by section 101 of the Enhanced Crime Prevention and Abatement Emergency Amendment Act of 2006, effective July 21, 2006 (D.C. Act 16-446) (Emergency Amendment Act), it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The curfew hours in the District of Columbia for individuals below the age of 17 will remain at 10:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m., for each night of the week.
2. The foregoing curfew hours will be in effect for twenty (20) consecutive days, commencing at 12:01 AM on Friday, September 29, 2006 and ending at 11:59 PM on Thursday, October 19, 2006.
3. The foregoing curfew hours will revert to the hours prescribed in the Juvenile Curfew Act at the end of the foregoing 20-day period, unless extended by further Mayor's Order.
4. The foregoing curfew hours are established as a preventive measure to keep children under the age of 17 from becoming victims of violent crimes. During the month of August, the alternative curfew hours imposed by the previous Mayor's order resulted in zero victimization of juveniles in public spaces. Therefore, as the school year begins, the curfew will remain at 10 pm every night of the week in order to help ensure that children under 17 are not placed in harm's way in dangerous or unsupervised situations late at night. It is important to provide for the safety of our children and youth during the hours when they are not in school.
5. In order to protect children and youth from becoming victims of crime or from becoming involved in crimes at night, I have determined that these alternative curfew hours are necessary.

6. I certify that the five-day notices required by the Emergency Amendment Act were given in accordance with the provisions thereof in connection with the promulgation of Mayor's Order 2006-102, dated July 27, 2006.
